No Bids Made on Science Building

Regents' Committee to Set New Date — More Contracts Are Asked

Three members of the college board of regents came to the campus Thursday to let a contract for the new science building, but departed without having done so. There were no bidders.

Five contractors at one time were figuring on the $175,000 science building, but three of them have obtained large government contracts. The two others were not ready Thursday.

The regents present were John E. Hill of Amarillo, Mrs. J. K. Beretta of San Antonio, and R. L. Thomas, who are members of the college sub-committee. Mr. Thomas, a new member, is an executive of the Dallas National Bank.

A date for considering bids—if any are received—will be set soon. A decision to ask bids not only on the building, but on mechanical and electrical work may necessitate a re-advertising of the award date.

M. O. Carder of Amarillo, college architect, believes that at least two contractors will submit bids when a new date is set.

Ground was broken for the new building at the Homecoming occasion last fall.

Farm Bureau Has Largest Membership on Plains

The annual organization of the Randall County Farm Bureau Association was held in the Court House February 20. The following officers were elected for one year: James Eddie Park, chairman, re-elected; B. E. McCormick, vice-chairman; Mrs. E. A. Michael, secretary-treasurer; Jno. L. Hammond and C. P. Robertson were elected to serve as additional members of the executive committee. The County Farm Bureau Association is made up of nine community associations which are each represented on the County Board by three persons elected by the community.

Randall county has the largest membership in the National Farm Bureau Federation of any county in the Panhandle. The local officers of the organization are hopeful that the membership will be as large in the future as in the past.

A district meeting of the Farm Bureau for the Panhandle area will be held in Amarillo, March 13, at the Herring Hotel for the purpose of discussing the Farm Bureau problems and the farmers place in the war effort. Members are urged to attend the district meeting.

Barrels Placed to Receive Old Electric Bulbs

Two barrels have been placed on the public square in which Canyon citizens are requested to deposit their old electric light bulbs. One barrel is on the west side and the other on the east side of the square.

There is a shortage of brass in the nation. A small amount of brass is used in making light bulbs, and this may be salvaged. The amount of brass is small, but if all bulbs are gathered in the nation as they burn out, a large amount of brass will be available for defense work.

Another Cold Wave Swept Over Plains This Week

Another cold wave hit the Plains Monday. However the temperature did not drop as low as predicted. The lowest temperature registered was 19 degrees above zero.

The drop in temperature followed two days of rather high wind, from the southwest on Sunday and from the north on Monday.

A big black cloud drove in from the north yesterday afternoon. Rain and snow started to fall and it looked for a while that heavy moisture would result. However, the clouds soon disappeared after dropping only .12 of an inch of moisture. Continued low temperature is predicted for today.

467 Men Are Now Enrolled

Calls Being Made For Men To Enter the Service; May Change Induction Plan

The national lottery under Selective Service will be held on March 17. At that time order numbers will be drawn for the men who signed up for military service last week. The lottery will be held in Washington.

After order numbers have been given the men, questionnaires will be mailed each man and local boards will then classify the men. It will require about 60 days to put these new registrants in line for military service.

New cards were received this week by the Randall County board bringing the total of registrants up to 468 men who were signed up for military service on February 16. It was estimated before the registration that 490 men would be enrolled. This number is about in line with the national percentage, although totals for the nation will not be announced by the war department.

The local board completed the first check last Friday of men who had previously been granted deferments. About 90 men were placed in line for physical examination when needed by the government.

William Q. Boyce left this morning for Fort Bliss and Clay Pritts, now in Washington, was ordered to report for induction at once.

Fourteen men have been ordered for physical examination at Lubbock on March 4.

A call for seven men to be inducted into military service at Fort Sill, Okla., on March 13 was received Saturday. Notices have been mailed to the men who will be inducted at that time.

Ray Cole left Tuesday for Dallas upon call from the navy to enter service. Several other men who have enlisted in the navy are expected calls within a few days.

Price Brookfield, all-American star of the Buffalo basketball squad, was accepted in the navy at Dallas Friday. Captain Frank Stockman and Douglas Groom, other members of the team, joined the navy last week.

Gayle Neal, a Randall county boy, was definitely announced by the army as being one of the marines who is a prisoner in Japan. He is from South Amarillo.

A change is being put into effect regarding the induction of men into military service. "Screening tests" will continue to be made by local physicians, but after men are given the physical examination by the army they are immediately inducted into service. If necessary the army may give a short furlough for the men to return home, but if no furlough is granted the men will be sent immediately into military training.

Up to this time after the screening test, men were given the army examination and returned home to await call for induction, which usually came about two weeks later. In the meantime they were free to join other branches of the service. Selective Service has been greatly handicapped by men joining other branches after passing their physical examinations.

Perfect Record in Border Conference Before Closing With Tech Modnay

The Buffaloes won the Border Conference basketball championship last night by defeating the Texas School of Mines at El Paso by a score of 88 to 65. Brookfield set a conference record with 42 points.

The Buffaloes have one more game to play, meeting Texas Tech at Lubbock Monday night. Since Tech has lost two games and the Buffaloes have a clear record in the conference, Monday night's game will not be a deciding factor in the Border Conference. Even should Tech nose out the Buffs, the season would end with the Buffs on top and Tech taking second place.

Only 100 tickets have been assigned to Buffalo fans. Plans were made by several hundred Buffalo fans to see the Buffs play Tech. Those who do not buy reserved seats in advance from the 100 allotted here will not have a chance to see the game. Tech played the Buffs a closer game at Burton Gym than any of the Border Conference teams.

The Buffs have played five games since Thursday night when the University of Arizona played at Burton Gym. The Buffs won 66 to 59 in a nip and tuck game.

Friday night the Buffs won 81 to 39 over Arizona State of Tempe.

The team left Sunday morning for the road trip on which three games were played this week.

The Buffs defeated the University of New Mexico at Albuquerque Monday night by a score of 75 to 45.

New Mexico Aggies fell victim to the Buffs Tuesday night by a score of 81 to 47 at Las Cruces. This game featured a fighting duel between Price Brookfield, All-American forward, and the stellar guard Dempsey. Brookfield made only 5 points and Dempsey was held to 4 points.

The Buffs have so far played 28 games, winning all but two.

An invitation to return to New York City for the college tournament starting March 15 is expected to be issued to the Buffs if the team defeats Tech Monday night, thus winning the Border Conference with 16 straight victories.

VERBAL SABOTAGE

When things are going wrong, too many people do a lot of loud complaining without any particular reason, other than to hear themselves talk. Talking may not do any particular harm, but when idle talk leads to national disunity, real danger appears, and national disaster may result.

Drug store military experts thrust the United States are saying just what the Dictators want them to say. They are cussing the military leaders, especially the English leaders, and making all kinds of idle charges of inefficiency.

This idle talk has increased to such an extent that there is real danger of undermining the confidence of Americans in the leadership of the United Nations. This kind of thing almost upset the recent conference in South America. Axis spies are reporting this lack of unity and the Axis propagandists are hurrying our own words back at America.

Before you cuss England and criticize the leadership in the war, just consider a few things.

The British Empire is our friend, and the only friend who can help us whip Hitler.

The British Empire stands between us and Hitler. Had England fallen after Dunkirk, Hitler would already be across the Atlantic and at our throats.

Would we have been ready to meet him? Certainly not; the President has been trying, all of the years since Japan moved into China and Italy took Ethiopia, to convince Americans that we were living in a world with mad-dog nations—yet the very critics of 1942 were not convinced of his warning.

SINCE 1883

JARRETT DRUG COMPANY

As a matter of fact, there is not a drug store military expert who knows a darn thing about running a war, any more than they know about coaching a football team. Let's muzzle these critics, or put them in uniform and allow them to show just how much superior their knowledge is to the commanding officers.

No one denies that this war business has been badly handled. Congress did not see the dangers; the people were not prepared for the successes of the Dictators, who have gambled everything on a quick knock-out blow; the mistakes of the past are being remedied as rapidly as a Democracy can move. One of these days—before it is too late—the United Nations will get their production machines and their military machines in high gear, and will strike the knock-out blows.

Churchill is re-organizing his cabinet to meet the demands of critics. Roosevelt is being urged to do the same thing. In a Republic, reforms come more slowly than under dictatorship.

The biggest handicap to the war in the United States so far has been the inability of manufacturers to see the dangers of defeat and the unwillingness of labor to operate under war-time schedules. Until capital and labor are willing to go all-out in this war, military leadership will continue to be handicapped.

A good thing for all of us will be to desist from idle talk and unjust criticism about something regarding which we know nothing.

NEWSPAPER TRIALS

With the war on, every citizen has his own troubles, and oftentimes he feels that the other fellow is little interested in these trials.

Newspapers are going through the most serious times in the history of printing.

Never has there been so great a demand for public service made upon newspapers and never has there been so serious a prospect of loss of revenue that enables newspapers to carry out that service.

Our mails are filled daily with appeals from the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Red Cross, Selective Service, OPM, and numerous other government agencies to transmit to you vitally important information. To this burden is added that of our local defense needs and the publicity required for every form of local welfare.

The public welfare and its publicity requirements are doubling in size, due to the numerous defense organizations either recently formed or now in the process of formation.

We are responding and will continue to respond to the utmost of our ability, but in the meantime we are suffering vital loss of national and local advertising revenue that has always been a substantial portion of our sustenance.

Deduct from any newspaper the advertising revenue received from production and sale of automobiles, tires, and other heavy merchandise now curtailed, and you throw it back solely dependent upon the local field. And local merchants find it difficult to advertise products which have been receiving national advertising in recent years.

To this must be added the rising costs of all materials, troublesome shortages, and inability to get running repair parts in many lines.

There very probably will come curtailment of paper sizes, and many in the profession expect subscription lists to be frozen at their present size and newspapers allowed to take no new subscribers.

In order that we may go on helping, we ask your help in some reasonable form. We earnestly ask to be given first opportunity to do your printing whether it be large or small.

Many of you now buy office supplies and materials from out of town dealers that we can make a few dimes on without raising your price. Stapling machines, typewriter supplies, ledger leaves, adding machine tape, salesbooks, and numerous other items can be bought from The News and thus help it to carry on.

We have connections with bindery and specialty houses to handle work which we are not equipped to do and we can deliver large books or printing of any variety to you at the price you have to pay specialty salesmen and we can still make a small commission.

It has never been our policy to ask you to pay us more for anything than is in line with competitive prices, but we feel that the present emergency at least justifies us in urging you to give us a chance at all of this business.

The News is a one hundred percent locally-owned institution. It maintains a fair-sized payroll, all of which is spent here. It is your local contact with every emergency, and it is the first called upon to serve worthwhile causes, called upon to do this service with no payment. We need your help now, and we will need your help throughout this emergency.

All we ask is that you help us to help "Keep 'Em Flying."

Politicians are going to have a hard time getting the attention of the voters this year. As a result of the war the crop of candidates is now very light. It seems that the office of Lieutenant Governor is the most favored at the present time, with four candidates in prospect. Senator O'Daniel will be opposed by Lobbyist Joe Steadham, but it is confidentially expected that Judge James V. Allred is ready to run into their race. Unless Allred, or some other colorful campaigner, gets into the race, 1942 will see a very tame political campaign. It is very likely that practically all of the races will be settled in the first primary. So far as Randall county is concerned, there is only one precinct contest in the county. The candidates are sure going to have a tough time getting any attention from the voters.

Bad news is much better when it comes at the beginning of a war than near the end. It is now definitely known that a defensive war will not whip an aggressive dictator, so we may be sure that offensive warfare will be started just as soon as America is able to get men and materials to our hard pressed Allies.

10,000,000 pistols with cartridges are said to be ready for dropping from planes in France and other conquered countries as soon as the Allies are ready for offensive warfare. Vichy is said to be arming Axis sympathizers in order to offset any arms which may be given to Frenchmen who are willing to fight for their freedom.

The victories of Japan are very disheartening to the United Nations. The steady march of the little brown devils clearly shows that they have been planning this war while we of the United States were asleep on the defense job. The Japs are gambling everything they have or hope to be. They are extending their lines so greatly that they must have a tremendous fleet to carry back the oil and rubber which they are stealing, and furthermore they must have a very large army to hold the vast territory which they have captured.

Quitting Time?

... Not for Us

QUITTING time doesn't mean a thing to your Electrical Company. Twenty-four hours a day, every day of the year, it brings better living to thousands of homes at the snap of a switch. It serves equally in industry, working as one of the most versatile tools ever given man's hand.

In this time of stress, when our whole country is devoted to production, we in the Electrical Industry are proud of the part Electricity is playing in making this land of ours a safer place for democracy. We are proud, too, that we were not found wanting when we were called on to serve.

No quitting time for the buying of U. S. Defense Bonds, either!

Tear-Jerking Drama and Barber Shop Harmony Delight Crowd

Bring together a couple of school teachers, a newspaperman, and a postmaster, dress them in bow ties, straw hats, bowlers and fancy canes, and there you have a real old-time barber shop quartet. Add to this conglomeration a popular football coach dressed fit to kill (anyway, a tight fit) in a huge red bow tie, frock coat and top hat who does the announcing in Bob Burns' style. All this—and much more—was seen at the Southwestern Dahlia Society party last Saturday night. Coach Leslie Van Meter, in true dead pan, drawing fashion, whipped out as corny a joke as ever told by a master-of-ceremonies.

Van Meter acted as intermediary for the quartet composed of Clyde Warwick, F. E. Savage, Carl York, and Guy Harp, who gave forth with gusto, as well as remarkable harmony, such old favorites as "Sweet Adeline," "Aunt Nellie's Quilting Party," "Swing Low," and "When You and I Were Young, Maggie."

No old time party would be complete without a quick glance thru the family album. Pictures within were ably portrayed by Mrs. R. P. Jarrett, Jr., Mrs. Joe Black, Mrs. C. M. Ford, Mrs. Klem Alexander, Diane Prichard, Marshall Jones, and Mrs. S. L. Ingham. The Sue Hite club was in charge of the feature.

Miss Novella Goodman handled the election angle by giving "Bestie's First Party." She was dressed in a pink ruffled dress and bonnet with blue bows tacked on the dress. She carried a black fan. Miss Maude Cuenod, arrayed in a green print with white collar and a fan, sang "After the Ball" and was compelled to follow with an encore.

Actors in the tear-jerker were members of the W. T. speech department. The cast included Virgil Kelly, O. C. Rampley, Thelma Franz, Dorothea Harter, and Jack Hessey.

The program was suddenly interrupted by a small man hurrying down the aisle advertising his wares, namely a tire. Van Meter wasn't sold on the tire, but permitted him to come on the stage. Then Bill Smith went into his act about "Levin's at the Wedding." Stuttering Sam himself couldn't have been more confusing.

After the program in the auditorium, square and folk dancing followed in the Education Building gymnasium. Mr. and Mrs. Art Querry of Amarillo demonstrated a "victory dance" which they originated. Dancing lasted till . . .

Students in the Home Economics department sold candy, drinks, and sandwiches, even furnishing table service.

Proceeds from the party go to the Southwestern Dahlia Society to help with the flower project on the campus.

Days are strange and fleeting things; The old earth rolls around in space And wears the grey or sunny days Like frowns or smiles upon its face.—R. McCann.

On next Sunday morning there will be initiated in the Presbyterian Church a Pre-Easter Loyalty campaign which will be carried on throughout the entire Church for the five remaining services before Easter. The campaign will be instituted in the Sunday school and the classes begin with the worship services. The worship on next Sunday will be in charge of the college students with the theme, "Come, Learn, Go Serve."

The theme for the morning worship services between now and Easter will be "The Defense of the Cross," the theme for next Sunday's sermon will be "Forsaking Christ." The general theme for the evening worship services will be "Lines in the Face of Jesus," with the theme for next Sunday "The Bright Line."

These services are announced, not only as a call for renewed loyalty to the Church, but a call to prayer in such an hour of need as there is in the world today.

Buffs Ranked in Top Position by Rating System

National magazines and rating services continue to tell the story of the Tall Texans of West Texas State.

Rated No. 1 in the nation are the Buffaloes in the "Difference by Score System" published by Dr. E. E. Litkenhous. He places Colorado second, Illinois third, and Long Island fourth. Dick Dunkel rates the Buffs No. 2 in the nation, behind Colorado, but No. 1 in the South.

Currently telling about the West Texans' prowess are Esquire magazine, Time magazine, the January bulletin of the National Association of Football Coaches, News-Week magazine, and the College Publicity Digest. Collier's magazine recently featured the Buffs in an article by Kyle Crichton.

A barrage of articles and interviews followed the West Texans' recent tour of the East. Accustomed to extravagant claims for sports outfits, sports writers gave unusually warm acclaims because of the genuineness of their height and prowess. Coach Al Baggett was the subject of many articles and columns.

Left-Over Meats Aid Budgeters To Cut Expenses

BY WINIFRED CLARK

THESE are days when careful budgeters are looking for ways to economize on meats. Here's a suggestion that will enable you to make economies without sacrificing flavor of your food.

You need not serve meat left-overs cold, or make hash (good as it may be). There are more appetizing ways to present the last of the roast.

Ham roll-ups are so delicious that no one would ever guess you used left-overs in preparing this dish. To make them, prepare a cheese sauce, using 4 tablespoons shortening, 5 tablespoons flour, 1 3/4 cups milk, 1/2 cup grated cheese and seasoning.

Trim fat from ham slices which should be 4 to 6 inches in size. Roll four tips of asparagus in each slice and put rolls, seam-side down, in shallow baking pan. Surround with cheese sauce and bake in hot oven 15 to 20 minutes until lightly browned.

Justice, sir, is the great interest of man on earth. It is the ligament which holds civilized nations together. Wherever her temple stands, and so long as it is duly honored, there is a foundation for social security, general happiness, the improvement and progress of our race. And whoever labors on this edifice with usefulness and distinction, whoever clears its foundations, strengthens its pillars, adorns its entablatures, or contributes to raise its august dome still higher in the skies, connects himself, in name, and fame, and character, with that which is and must be as durable as the frame of human society.—Daniel Webster.

Philip Lee Brings Youth Greetings

Lee Compares Occidental Music With the Original

"I bring you greetings from the students of China," were the opening words of Philip Yung Lee as he began "China Sings On," a lyceum number consisting of lectures, songs and music, in the Canyon High School auditorium, Tuesday, February 17.

Throughout the program, Mr. Lee's style of talking and his gestures held the entire student body enthralled.

Lee Sings and Plays

After playing on the Chinese flute and singing a Chinese song to his own accompaniment on the "Yantechin," or Chinese piano, Mr. Lee described his instruments and told of the chief differences between Chinese and American music. "While our music may seem monotonous to Americans, the 'Chatanoga Choo Choo' type of music would be very complicated to us," said Mr. Lee as he compared the two types of music. Mr. Lee also played the Chinese guitar, an instrument somewhat like our mandolin.

Lee Compares Books

"The Chinese have been using printing since the ninth century," said Mr. Lee. He showed how Chinese books are printed so that the reader of Oriental books, in contrast to the reader of Occidental books, may agree with the author as he reads the vertical lines of printing.

Mrs. Lee Starts as Nurse

Mrs. Lee, who came to America for the first time in 1937, told how she had started her career as a nurse and how, with Fred Snite, an infantile paralysis victim, she came to the United States. She also told the story of how the Chinese girl has come into importance among her family during the last few years.

Self-Tests Reveal Typists' Honesty

"Confess it all," exclaimed Olin Huff, typing instructor, as he passed out self-test sheets on typing habits.

Typical questions under the headings, concentration, rhythm, keeping eyes on copy, correct posture and elimination of unnecessary motions are: "Did your mind wander, even for a second, to some irrelevant thought? Did you type in jerks that sounded like a Model T running out of gas? Did you look up to see why someone stopped typing?"

"Did you twine your feet about your chair, or table, or around each other; or did you sprawl them cozily in the aisle? Did your fingers do a ballet dance on the keys?" "Grades averaged about 48 and the tests were very successful, answering many questions for me," concluded Mr. Huff.

By Joan Morton—Sixth Grade
Democracy is a word that means freedom. It gives us many privileges.

The greatest of these privileges is the right of free religion. Now that we have the right to go to any church we want to, many of us do not go at all. If people would only think back to the time when people had to go to a certain church whether they wanted to or not, they would be glad to go every Sunday morning.

People use freedom of speech more than they realize. In America, we say everything we can think of against Hitler. But if we were in Germany we would be thrown into prison and forgotten.

We have freedom of the press. That means that we may print anything we wish, whether it is true or not. If we wanted to, we could print in the paper that we didn't like President Roosevelt. Of course we would not print it, but if we did, Roosevelt could not throw us into prison.

We also have freedom of opportunity, universal education, rights for private property and freedom of assembly. Long ago when a king once got into office he could not be taken down from his throne. The people had to obey him. Today we elect our own president, and when he is elected, he is our servant and not our master.

If we did not have these rights we would have to be slaves. Long ago the people who did not have these rights were unhappy and they struggled against the king and his favorites. Several times they lost, but they finally won these privileges and we still have them. But if we wish to keep them, we must win this war. We must struggle to keep these rights as the people struggled to gain them.

Intramural Finals Tonight

Vol. 16—No. 18

Intramural Basketball Moves into Spotlight

Teams Compete For Superiority

Upper Classmen Suppress Other Battling Cagmen

Class rivalry again took the spotlight, as intramural cagemen battled in the most outstanding fracas of the basketball season.

The flashy seniors squeezed out a 23-1 victory over the seventh grade hoopers in the first combat of the series, with Robert Laughery ringing eight of the final tallied 23 points. Gene Davis protected the Farley five by sinking the ball once from the free pitch line.

Black and Taylor Lead Squads

The stubborn junior cagers forced a 22-4 defeat upon the eighth grade club Tuesday at noon as the on-lookers roared continually. Shooting for Thompson's squad was Charles Taylor, who sank the ball twice, while flashy George Black, from the Wright five, ran up 14 field baskets.

Freshmen forces suffered an 8-7 defeat at the hands of Sanders' hoopers Wednesday in the third controversy of the tournament. Dowd and Dummond pushed the sophomore tally upward.

Juniors and Seniors Skirmish

Richmond Hales and Charles Taylor enjoyed an eight point lead as the sub-freshmen overpowered the seventh grade's hustling forces Thursday 18-4. Stars from the younger quintet were Gene Davis and Charles Wright, who both rallied a free basket throw.

Playing in the highlighted struggle were the junior and senior scorers, who skirmished Friday at noon. In the added two minutes as the basketball fans cheered madly, Burdette Brown dredged the 9-7 victory out of the foes by dropping the deciding basket. Black paced the eleventh grade five with five scores, while Laughery again starred for the senior quintet.

Winn Shoots Eight Goals

Ninth grade tilts clinched the championship over the sub-freshmen cagers Monday, February 23, when J. Spencer Winn shot eight field goals, advancing the final count to 13-5. A three point pitch famed Eugene Hardman from the eighth grade club.

Juniors and Seniors Delegate New Student Welcomers

Class meetings were held last Friday in the home rooms of the classes.

Earleen Greenfield and Brice Payne were elected student welcomers from the Senior Class. Discussing graduation exercises, the seniors were told by Miss Grace Clark that Sunday, May 17, would be the date of the baccalaureate sermon, and on Thursday, May 21, the final commencement exercises would take place.

The Junior Class elected Peggy Bishir and George Black as delegates to welcome new students. Dick Woods gave a short talk on "Some Incidents in the Life of Washington," after which Mrs. Guy Tabor, sponsor, served a piece of divinity and fudge candy to the students.

Ester Byrd entertained the sophomores with a musical program and Olin Huff, sponsor, talked to the group about the Sophomore Play to be given on April 17. Freshmen and sub-freshmen were entertained by jokes, riddles, poems and games led by the program chairman of their classes.

The Stuttering Sam Musical Comedy Show will not be presented here February 26, as was announced in last week's issue of The Eagle's Tale, because Sam is suffering from a throat ailment. "Sam and his show will be here at a later date," announced Clarence Thompson, Senior Class president.

High School Band Members Receive Regional Contest Music Selections

"Two Admirals" by Skornika and "Phantom Trumpeters" by Gillette, the required and selective pieces for the Canyon High School band in the Regional I-A Contest this spring, were received this week. "Overture Americana" by Buchtel, the student conductor's number, is also being practiced daily.

"Flirtations," a cornet trio by Herbert L. Clarke, is to be played by Dan Cabe, Dick Woods and Ross Bruner.

Anita Davis, J. Spencer Winn, Andy Walsh and Jane Campbell have begun practice on Handel's "Fughetta of the Little Bells," an arrangement for four clarinets.

"A Morning Song" by Borowski, arranged for a brass quartet will be played by Dick Woods, Ross Bruner, Frank Sharman and Gordon Lynn Dickerson.

"This music is well within the ability of the band, but the annual contest will take plenty of work from all the members of the band," commented Harold Barnett, director.

Boys Will Exhibit Projects Soon

The Canyon project show for the Future Farmers of America will hold its regular show March 7.

All the boys enrolled in agriculture are required to have a project. At the project show, they are given an opportunity to display their projects, competing for a premium. Awards are based upon the care, records, appearance and management of the animals.

Last year five hog feeders, three troughs, two pocket knives, overalls and $15 in cash were presented as premiums.

"We try to give awards that will be useful," said Loyd Devin, agriculture instructor.

Cactus Cal is naturally sticky but those who read Cal this week will really get stuck.

Sweet Scoops from Skating Scholars: (Anything I have wrong in this column, please come quietly and bash in my head—otherwise forever hold your distance.)

Up at the school one night, the Hollabaugh kids, Gene and J. D., were seemingly having a nice time of it with Gwendolyn Sullivan and Peter Meyers. Speaking of Sullivan, one bright moonlight night when I was strolling all alone, who should come along but Genevieve Sullivan and Wayne Trout—just met going the same way, I suppose—hmm.

Some people, so I'm told come to school to have intelligent questions answered, but these are some of the questions that have been bothering me—

How does Wilma Jean Dickerson tell her twin sisters, Sue and Faye, apart?

How does Patsy Woods control those striking blue eyes of hers?

How does any sun get into the building since Mr. Tabor moved to Canyon? Mrs. Tabor beams in every corner—she even served candy to her juniors last Friday in class meeting!

Why can Mr. Devin always be found at Bob's Coffee Shop about 11 o'clock, alone? Wait a minute—look who's talking.

How does Mr. Kiker—the number one busby of the school—keep wound up all the time? The only time I ever saw him "run down" is when he "runs down" the hall.

How does Joe Ziegler draw pictures of old, old poets when there are so many beautiful (?) girls in our school? Confidentially, I'd just like to know how Joe draws.

Any answers to these varied questions will certainly be appreciated by yours truly.

Some questions I asked around were answered: What has four wheels and flies? Evelyn Black—a garbage truck. Where can you always find happiness?

Harley Hicks (sarcastically)—In the dictionary.

What is half of two and two? Barbara Michael—Three, 'cause half of two is one, which with two makes three.

If a farmer raises a dozen acres of wheat in dry weather, what will he raise in wet weather? Wayne Wirt—Boy, I'll be he will "raise Cain."

How long did Cain hate his brother? Christine Kellum—As long as he was "Abel."

'Just Hang Me Up!' Exclaims Clarence

With Clarence Thompson's daring someone to hang him on the wall and Gordon Lynn Dickerson's painting himself some sideburns, a la Clark Gable, and the whole cast's having loads of fun, the Senior Class is having its third week of practice for the production of "Take Off" by J. Dan Farman.

The cast is beginning work on the third act this week.

"The entire cast has been making rapid progress and, from all indications, is having a very good time doing so," commented Miss Grace Clark, sponsor of the Senior Class and director of the play.

Class B High School Meet

Class B district will hold its elimination tournament at West Texas State College on Saturday, February 28. Coach Al Baggett will direct the meet.

The district winners will compete for the privilege of going to the Class B state tournament at Austin, in which eight winners will participate. While certifications have not yet arrived, district officials have mentioned the following probable entries: 1B, Follett; 2B, Stratford; 3B, Turkey or Springlake; 4B, Thalia.

Play will start at 9:30 a. m. and continue on a single elimination basis. This is a meet for the smaller high schools. Larger high schools of this area have worked out their eliminations under the new plan of the Interscholastic League, and will not meet here.—The Prairie.

FFA Chapter Will Honor New Sweetheart on Select Date

The Future Farmers of America have selected the date of March 27 for the annual Parent and Son banquet.

Billy Brown, Billy Thurman and Eldon Garrison were appointed to arrange the program for the evening.

Fern Zimmer, the new chapter sweetheart, will be the guest of honor, while the sweethearts of previous years will also be honored.

Definite plans have not been decided upon, but a group of boys is planning a patriotic banquet suitable to the national situation.

Cox Leads Physical Education Classes in Regular Assembly

Starting on the assembly program Friday, February 27, will be the seventh and eighth grade physical education classes under the direction of Wesley Cox, physical education instructor.

The boys will go through a 30 minute routine of flips, cartwheels, pyramids, hand springs, rolls, headstands, diving and barrel rolling.

"I think the boys are shaping up fine for the program Friday," said Mr. Cox, "and I believe that they will put on a good program."

Father's Reputation Acquires Daughter's First School Job

"I wouldn't trade jobs with anyone," exclaimed Miss Elva Fronabarger, grade school principal, when this reporter inquired about the pleasure she derived from her work. "Here I am, perfectly satisfied."

Thus I felt that perhaps this contentment was the main element promoting the excellent service Miss Fronabarger is rendering her school and community.

After riding for half a day in a buggy, she and her brother applied for their first teaching jobs only 17 or 18 miles from home.

"People stared at us from all sides as we walked down the street with the superintendent. I was really frightened, but we obtained our first position—on Father's reputation."

At this small town, Miss Fronabarger began the career that has found her an instructor in all grades from the first grade through junior high.

As a background for this work, she attended Baylor University at Waco, Texas, West Texas State College at Canyon and George Peabody College at Nashville, Tennessee.

She taught in different schools until eight years ago when she attained the position of principal of Canyon Grade School. Having "tried the ropes," Miss Fronabarger concludes that teaching the first

Students Assist US with Ideas

Boy or Girl Should Join Organized Defense Club

Boys and girls throughout America are seriously thinking about ways that they can help speed their country to victory in this great war. Many have written the Youth Division of the Office of Civilian Defense at Washington with suggestions for new, patriotic organizations.

Ericsson Gives Advice

"The best advice I can give young people below military age who want to serve their country," explained Samuel Ericsson, Coordinator of Junior Defense Programs for the Division of Youth Activities of the Office of Civilian Defense, "is to see members of the Defense Council in your town. Instead of spending time thinking about organizing still other groups for defense—groups which might duplicate the work of others—why not use the organization already officially set up?"

Youth Organizes

Mr. Ericsson pointed out that Youth Defense Auxiliaries are now being organized in connection with Defense Councils in towns, cities and states. Composed of representatives of local youth organizations, Youth Defense Auxiliaries will be very glad to receive any new ideas from patriotic girls and boys.

Your school teachers and principal no doubt can offer suggestions on how you can do the most good for National Defense, it was explained.

Patriotism Inspiring

"The spirit of sincere patriotism that American girls and boys are showing is inspiring," Mr. Ericsson said. "We appreciate the loyalty of every young person in our great country for this fight against the evil forces opposing us across the oceans."

Confoozin' Time Is Amoozin' Students

"It's amoozin' as well as confoozin'! But meal time comes more often—or does it?" quizzed Peter Meyers, a lad who loves his food—and the more the merrier!

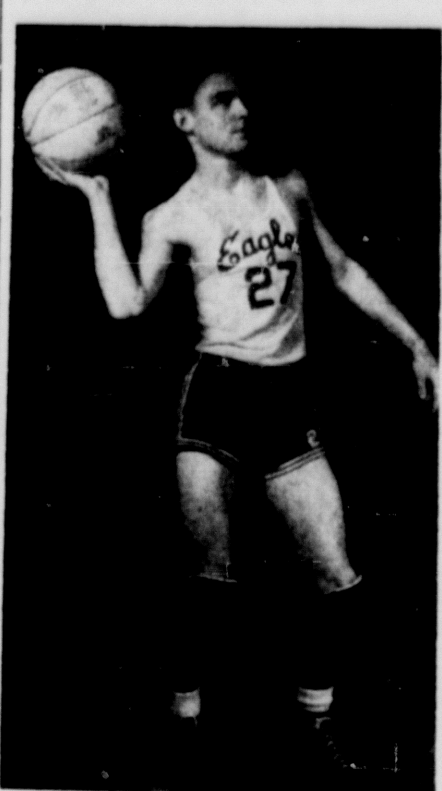

As an Englishman understands a joke, Canyon High School is beginning to get in the groove with war time. By stretching one's imagination, if everyone would begin his slumbering exercises at 12 o'clock war time and arise at 9, to reach school at 10 o'clock, it might be possible to obtain more sleep under the new time.

By the old time, school began at 9 o'clock, and the breakfast hour began at 8 instead of 9 o'clock. This intoxicating idea is a bit stifling; nevertheless there is some consolation in this feeble brainstorm.

Junior: "What do you think of a man who constantly deceives his wife?"
Senior: "I think he's a wonder."

Pound Papa: "Children are the sunshine of our lives."
Weary Papa: "Yes, and for me sunrise comes about 4 a. m."

Cabe Will Crown Champs Tonight

Faculty Members Will Battle Last Eagle Squad Lettermen

Battling for the 1942 Intramural Basketball Championship, two teams, being decided by play-offs this week, will clash tonight at 8 o'clock war time, in the grade school gymnasium.

Following the championship fracas, the lettermen of the 1942 Eagle Squad will entertain the faculty in order to make them work so that they might get a so-called revenge.

Cabe Will Present Awards

At half-time of the lettermen-faculty game, Dan Cabe, editor of The Eagle's Tale, will present the winning coach and his team with a plaque and the all-tournament players will be awarded with individual medals.

Coach Watches for Possibilities
"One of the chief purposes of these games," asserted Wesley Cox, "is to enable the coach to look for boys who could possibly develop into varsity players."

Student Predictions

At the time this story was being written, the general predictions were that the seniors and juniors would play in the finals, but the sophomores and the freshmen are standing good chances of playing in the finals against their upper classmen.

Undefeated List

Heading the undefeated and untied list are the seniors, having won two games. Following them are the sophomores, who won the only game they had played at the time of this writing.

Speed Urges Attendance

"I would like to urge every school patron to be present tonight in order that they might see the sportsmanship portrayed in such events," urged Superintendent J. B. Speer.

Admission prices will be ten cents, tax included, for children and adults.

Junior Students Have Chosen Rings with Patriotic Theme

The Junior Class decided upon its class rings for the year 1943, when Lonnie Smith, salesman for Herff Jones and Company, presented the selections to the class.

A committee of class officers picked two of the models to be decided upon by the class. Mr. Smith had six types of premiums from which the class might choose; these premiums will be given with the rings.

The ring, called Victory Model, is yellow gold, with an eagle set in white gold; the "V" for victory, three dots and a dash, is engraved on either side.

The class expects to get the rings sometime in the fall.

Disappearing Thumbtacks Are Problem to Drawing Class

"Who swiped my thumbtacks?" is a familiar cry heard in the mechanical drawing class each day.

It seems to make no difference how many tacks are brought into the class room, there are always drawing boards without tacks.

Thumbtacks are used to hold the drawing paper on the board, thus keeping the paper from slipping.

"Almost all of the students in mechanical drawing have finished their drawings and are now inking them. After the inking is finished they will make the blueprints," asserted Milton Sanders, instructor.

Eight Eagle Cagemen Order Basketball Letter Awards

Climaxing the basketball season of 1942, Coach Wesley Cox has announced the eight lettermen of the season.

Lettering for the first time are James Harp, Jack Farley, Wayne Wirt, Frank Sharman, Al Hunter and Clarence Thompson.

Second year lettermen are Calvin Sanders and James Wright. "The boys have ordered their jackets and they will be similar to the football jackets," commented Mr. Cox.

The school board met January 12 and decided that the Canyon Public Schools will follow the same procedure as West Texas State College and its Training School which, due to the national emergency, will observe no holidays during the semester.

Since the Educational Conference will be held March 20, students will be given this day off instead of April 1, while the teachers will be required to attend the Conference in Amarillo.

"This school term will close on Saturday, May 23," announced Superintendent J. B. Speer.

Defective Teeth Cause of Large Number Rejections

Defective teeth caused more rejections under Selective Service than any other physical defect, stated Dr. E. J. Cundiff at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. 20.9% of the men rejected were classed with defective teeth, according to reports from the army.

This high percentage of rejections is the result of 10 years of depression when so many families had little or no dental work done. With unemployment and bare necessities of life for the families, dental work was neglected by thousands of families.

According to Dr. Cundiff, too little emphasis has been placed upon dentistry in the public schools. Appropriations to assist the fight of dental diseases have been very small.

Ninety per cent of the population of this country is afflicted with some kind of dental disease. Only 22% of the population receive regular dental care. A sound national health program is needed.

The profession is doing everything possible to improve the situation, stated the speaker. Dentists are enlisting in the armed services. Of the 67,949 dentists in the nation, 21,000 are in the draft age. However, the number of young men graduating from dental colleges is declining annually.

To meet the problem of the high number of rejections because of dental defects, it is being advocated that standards for men in military service be lowered, and that men be accepted and then rehabilitated by dentists serving in the army and navy.

Harold Barnett, Canyon high school band director, played two cornet solos. He was accompanied by Miss Anita Davis.

Visitors were: W. O. Lockhart of Dallas, and Rev. Jimmie Aiken of Hereford.

People often say to me, "If you think that there is no reasonable life outside the teachings of Christ, and if you love a reasonable life, why do you not fulfill the Christian precepts?" I am guilty and blame-worthy and contemptible because I do not fulfill them. . . . Condemn me if you choose—I do that myself—but condemn me, and not the path which I am following, and which I point out to those who ask me where, in my opinion, the path is—Leo Tolstoy.

Frame Gardens Are Being Planted

Big farmers, little farmers, tenant farmers, and part-time farmers in Randall county this year will join with other farmers throughout the United States in producing a record quantity of foodstuffs for the United Nations, according to Mrs. Lillie B. McClure, Home Management Supervisor for the Farm Security Administration.

"Uncle Sam," said Mrs. McClure, "knows that we must have more food than ever before if we are to win this war. He knows also that we must protect the health of our own people with better diets from home-grown vegetables."

Mrs. McClure believes almost every family in Randall county can immediately begin growing fresh vegetables at home in a sub-irrigated frame garden such as the one pictured above.

The farm people in this picture are using old tin cans in the place of the more expensive tile to sub-irrigate their frame garden.

An outstanding feature of these frame gardens is the fact that fresh vegetables can be grown for the family tables long before the ordinary gardens are in production, and for many weeks after the first frost in the fall. An ordinary sized frame garden will produce all an average family needs for daily use.

"Complete instructions for building and planting a frame garden can be obtained at the Farm Security Administration office on the third floor of the Court House at Canyon or at the office of the County Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Frances Wilroy," said Mrs. McClure. "They are inexpensive and very little trouble to build and plant."

Lions Club Awards Trophy to Buffalo Capt. Stockman

Basing the award on ability, value to the ball club, scholarship and sportsmanship, the Canyon Lions Club presented a beautiful basket ball trophy to Capt. Frank Stockman of the West Texas State Buffaloes at the regular luncheon Thursday noon. This is the 1941 trophy.

Mitchell Jones, who was in charge of the program, introduced Dr. A. M. Meyer, who spoke on National Defense. He started the thought by mentioning the great genius of Democracy, that this is a country where we live as an individual, rather than as a cog in a machine, and that all minds should be free.

Democratic genius, he stated, recognizes peace as by far superior to war. Racial, political, and cultural minorities must be recognized.

Stating that this is a war of totalitarianism vs. Democracy, Dr. Meyer contrasted the brutal, intolerant totalitarian nation with the democracy where the mind is given preference to brute strength. He said that Americans must win the war by uniting and stirring their emotions that are the basis of our morality, and of our understanding of democracy, its privileges, and its responsibilities. "We must preserve the seed corn of this culture produced by the democracies for future generations," concluded the speaker.

Harold Barnett and Tom Langston were introduced as new members of the Lions Club.

Guests were Dr. Meyer, Frank Stockman, Al Baggett, Derald T. Swineford, and T. S. Stevenson, Jr.

We are going to win the war and we are going to win the peace that follows. And in the dark hours of this day—and through dark days that may be yet to come—we will know that the vast majority of the members of the human race are on our side. Many of them are fighting with us. All of them are praying for us. For, in representing our cause, we represent theirs as well—our hope, and their hope for liberty under God.—President Roosevelt.

I think it rather fine, this necessity for the tense bracing of the will before anything worth doing can be done. I rather like it myself. I feel it is to be the chief thing that differentiates me from the cat by the fire.—Arnold Bennett.

"Oh, I remember now. It struck me as a fine car."
